"The Rock Island County Federation of Women's Clubs is happy to be continuing the legacy of club members that came before us by making our annual donations. We are proud to support the charities who do so much to make the Quad Cities a wonderful place to live and volunteer." Cathy Marsoun – Rock Island County Federation of Women's Clubs

"The Moline Regional Community Foundation is honored to partner with the Rock Island County Federation of Women's Clubs as they put their mission into action through their generous grantmaking." Paul Plagenz – President/CEO

About Moline Regional Community Foundation

Founded in 1953, MRCF partners with generous individuals who genuinely care about our community by establishing any number of grantmaking funds, including donor-advised, nonprofit endowments, scholarships, field-of-interest, and donor-designated funds. Serving a six-county region, including Rock Island, Henry, Mercer, Henderson, and McDonough Counties in Illinois, and Scott County in Iowa, MRCF helps donors put their Giving Into Action!
