“The Moline Regional Community Foundation is engaged and deeply knowledgeable of the non-profit landscape in the area. Old National Wealth Management couldn’t think of a better partner to support the grantmaking process,” said Joy Bihun, Vice President, Senior Trust Officer at Old National.

“We are grateful for this opportunity and thankful for the community members who evaluated and guided the award process. These awards provide vital support to essential organizations, transforming our community.” Victoria Rodgers – Finance & Grant Administrator.

MRCF will administer the grant process annually and announce awards each December.

About Moline Regional Community Foundation

Founded in 1953, MRCF partners with generous individuals who genuinely care about our community by establishing any number of grantmaking funds, including donor-advised, nonprofit endowments, scholarships, field-of-interest, and donor-designated funds. Serving a six-county region, including Rock Island, Henry, Mercer, Henderson, and McDonough Counties in Illinois, and Scott County in Iowa, MRCF helps donors put their Giving Into Action!
